And thus they go from year to year, Exposing by the legions, And reaching out, both far and near, Through all the world and regions. ELECTION DAY. Election day is coming, with all that pomp can wield; Electors are protected by an artificial shield. Boodlers have defrauded this sacred trust of men, Until we have devised a plan with stall and chute for them; A die that stamps the chosen one, a juror in the box, They there receive no emoluments, and cheat the sly old fox, By passing in behind the screen, away from longing eyes. And fixing out their ballots, concealed from those that buys. This ballot must be counted according to the mark Thats placed thereon, without restraint, the symbol of their heart. Then hand the stamp to the polling clerk, the ticket to inspector, Go on your way rejoicing then, your conscience clear as nectar. Schemes and fraud are dormant now, the people have ascended; No more theyll milk the fatted cow, our rights are strongly blended. The milk will flow the other way, theres crystals in the butter; We are so glad were free again, our hearts doth fairly flutter. The ship of state will still sail on, the sea is calm and easy; The schemers cry is passing by, their mantles dark and greasy. LITTLE DOG FRED. I have a little dog whose name is Fred, He runs with me to play; He has four eyes within...
