As time went on, Sunny s family and friends worried for her as she cut her self off from the rest of the world after her tragic loss. A reality check and a bit of useful information from her best friend Julie gave Sunny a reason to believe that there is a life for her to live for after all. As Sunny learned about a website called Cap City Singles she began to explore the possibilities of moving on with her life. While doing so, she wanted to protect her husbands good name and remain the perfect wife to the public while attempting to have her needs met. In order to have the best of both worlds, Sunny decided to create an alter ego named Passion. As Passion Sunny could be free to have her cake and eat it to with no regrets. She had one simple rule; Leave your heart on the outside of the door. Passion was all about business, and her business was sex. No more and no less. Sunny s alter ego was the opposite of everything that Sunny stood for. She would simply Love them and go without a care in the world. This new life that she led was a total secret. While living this secret life; Sunny felt a rush of power whenever she would Let Passion out to play. Sunny lived her life through Passion as well as her sexual fantasies. Would Sunny be able to...
