I am your true friend, and you may write to ask my advice at any time. This girl is now married to a man in good business. Dear M. A., --A. H. was delighted with your necktie and your thinking of her. She looks so very nice in all her new clothes. I have every hope she will do well. I was very pleased to see you when I called so unexpectedly, and to find you looking so well and happy; but there was one little thing I was disappointed in, and that was-- can you guess? Why, you had no cap on; such a pity, I assure you, if you want to look nice. Wear caps; a pretty cap sets a servant off, and not wearing caps does not make you a lady. Dear girl, never mind what the...
