Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1991. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xvi, 129pp There are perhaps many a books written on Nagaland. Nagaland : Darling of the North East is not just yet another addition to that list. This particular volume presents a comprehensive picture of Nagaland with its historical and socio-geographical accounts, it includes at the same time interesting description of the various Naga tribes, their customs, rites, social systems, head hunting, arts and crafts, languages, rebel Nagas, folk songs and tales laying special emphasis on their colourful festivals which still today vibrate the hill and forests and vigorous yet intrinsic qualities despite the foreign missionaries injecting the spirit of their gospels among the people. The author who had been in Nagaland for a long time gathered an intimate knowledge about the tribes gives a graphic description with a unique and exquisitely interesting style.
