Magic of Friendship

By Anyssa Reddix

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 226 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Jass SanTonies knew 7th grade was going to be completely different. She had been prepping and planning all summer for 7th grade to be the greatest year ever. She wanted things to be different. Since her celebrity parents, Jasmine and Alec SanTonies, made SanTonies a household name, things were extremely difficult for Jass. She was forever living in the shadow of her parents. People expected things from her. At one end, they would try to use her to get to her status, while others assumed she was just a spoiled, airhead heiress. But Jass was not your stereotypical celeb daughter. Jass was ambitious and willing to work for what she wanted. And in 7th grade, she wanted people to know her for her, and not her last name. She wanted friends who cared about more than her money or her fame, but who really cared about her. With that exact attitude and a trendsetting wardrobe, Jass entered middle school at the prestigious Miami Prep. She pairs up with her longtime best friend, sweet and reliable Bridget. On the first day, they immediately meet three amazing girls. There...
