Whole Person Associates, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 6.8in. x 0.5in.No two veterans have the same war experience, nor, upon returning from war do they face exactly the same reintegration challenges. Likewise, veterans heal and recover in their own ways and along their own timelines. Working together, compassionate, knowledgeable, and skilled caregivers, friends, and professionals can give veterans life-saving and life-giving care and support. This practical guide for ministering to veterans is packed with wisdom and advice to help caregivers understand the nature of the IraqAfghanistan wars, the challenges soldiers face when returning home, and the physical, psychological, and spiritual wounds of war. Several chapters of the book are dedicated to helping faith communities minister effectively to returning soldiers by outlining the basic principles for outreach, providing guidelines for creating a welcoming and safe environment, and sharing ideas for activating the healing rituals of the church year. Also included in the book is a wealth of additionnal recommended resources including: agencies that serve veterans, tips for making effective referrals, quick screening tools for PTSD, depression, and traumatic brain injury; and a comprehensive Wounds of War Assessment with a whole person focus. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
