Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Journal of Some of the Leading Professional, Commercial, and Manufacturing Interests of Binghamton, N. Y. In 1882 The City of Binghamton, situated at the junction of the Susquehanna and Chenango rivers, in Broome County, New York, stands -among the first in the United States in beauty of location and surroundings, healthfulness of climate, rapid increase in population, development of business interest and enterprises. Situated in the centre of a rich farming country, and just on the borders of the iron, coal and oil regions of Pennsylvania, it is not surprising that, within thirty years, it has grown from a sleepy, little inland village, to a large railroad centre and busy commercial mart and manufacturing city. Men of enterprise and wealth have not been slow to recognize its future prospects, and their energy and capital have left, and are still rearing enduring monuments to honor the memory of their efforts. Settled at first by people of culture, their influence and example determined for the coming generations, the nature of its institutions, in its churches, schools, public libraries, public buildings, and local legislation. We see the evidence of their wisdom and foresight. No city of its population presents better facilities for educational advantages than Binghamton: Seven large public school buildings, with an efficient corps of teachers, under the supervision of a well qualified and earnest Superintendent and Board of Directors; in addition to which, are several private institutions, first among which is the Binghamton Literary and Classical Institute, under the direction of Miss Lillian M.Craig. In this institution, pupils can obtain instruction in any of the branches required for College, preparatory, or practical utility. All grades...
