Excerpt: . . . HISTORY OF NEW LYME. N 1795 the present township of New Lyme was purchased of the State of Connecticut, by the Connecticut Land Company, for the sum of 2, 400, or 15 cents an acre; 17 95 1uite a contrast between that and the present prices of 100, and many cases more than that, per acre. It was next sold by that Company to Elisha Tracy and Judge Gilbert, of East Haddam, Connecticut. The first white settler Of this township, was Mr. Joel Owen, from Nelson, Tolland county, Connecticut. Mr. Owen, after having devoted thirtythree years of the prime of his life to public and private business, purchased of Mr. Tracy, one thousand acres of land in this township; this purchase included what is known as the Bovee farm, and other farms adjoining the same. It lies about one mile north-east of the present village of Brownsville. Lebanon Creek passes directly through the tract. About the first of November, 1803, Mr. Owen started from 1803 Connecticut with his family, consisting of his wife and. two children, in a wagon drawn by a pair of heavy oxen, to move onto his lard in this town, a distance of about six hundred miles. The season was so far advanced and the roads so bad to travel, that when they arrived at Amsterdam, on the Mohawk River, Mr. Owen concluded to let his family remain there unil the next soring, while he went on to spend the...
