On completion of the evidence (if any), or at such other time as he may see fit, the Comptroller shall appoint a time for the hearing of the case, and shall give the parties ten days notice at the least of such appointment. If either party does not desire to be heard he shall as soon as possible notify the Comptroller to that effect. If either party desires to be heard he must leave Patents Form No. 9 at the Office. The Comptroller may refuse to hear either party who has not left Patents Form No. 9 prior to the date of hearing. If either party intends to refer at the hearing to any publication other than a specification mentioned in the notice of opposition, he should, unless the same has been referred to in a statutory declaration already filed, give to the other party and to the Comptroller five days notice at the least of his intention, together with details of each publication to which he intends to refer. After hearing the party or parties desirous of being heard or if neither party...
