History made had not been recorded - traditions had not been preserved - the names of those who had done much to lay strong and deep the foundation of the Republic were forgotten. With the consciousness of neglect came an acknowledgement of the obligation to the century that had passed, and a proper appreciation of the value of its teachings. Gradually there sprang up a feeling of reverence for the Past, stimulating the inquiry: How can the omissions be supplied? About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
