Excerpt: . . . through his kind consideration for our comfort while attending this celebration. A permanent organization of the survivors of the session of 1867 and previous sessions was effected by the election of the following named gentlemen as officers President, Samuel Maxwell; vice-president, Lawson Sheldon; secretary, J. E. Kelley; treasurer, Martin Dunham. Mr. Atkinson of the Lincoln committee on arrangements then gave notice that seats had been reserved in representative hall for the members, and the meeting adjourned subject to call of the officers of the association. THE CELEBRATION PROPER. It Occurs in Representative Hall Instead of in the Open Air. At an early hour yesterday morning the grounds about the state house were thronged with people, who were gathered there in anticipation of the formal celebration of the silver anniversary, the central program of the two days carnival. Brass bands, banners and flags were as plentiful...
