Reviews

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: .It is a two story building 100 feet long and 75 feet wide, with an addition 35 by 100. In this factory is every facility for the complete manufacture of an indicator from the casting to the nickel plating. The company states that a result of these excellent facilities is its ability to furnish the Excelsior and Howard Thompson Indicators at the prices it does although the cost of material and labor is constantly advancing. Mr. A. C. Lippincott recently stated that never in his experience had the indicator business been so good. The orders are coming from all parts of the world at a rate in excess of the company s facilities. This is the more remarkable in view of the fact that until recently the company s product was sold through various agencies, which kept the factory to a great extent in the background. Progressive business methods and judicious advertising are credited with this business. Mr. Lippincott states that they have no instrument on their list which has not been remodeled and improved during the past summer months, and as their stock has been cleaned out as fast as received, they have nothing for sale excepting clean, new goods. The leaks in most steam plants when added together at the end of the year will represent a considerable amount. Prominent among them is the item of packing. The average owner of a plant does not stop to consider the damage to the engine and...
